

Date	Time and Place	Session Title	Convener(s)	Location	Session Details
Wednesday 28th August	Session 1 (9:00-10:40)	Transnational Migration and the City: Infrastructure, Everyday Life and Affect	Yunting Qi (Royal Holloway, University of London)	Sherfield/SALC Building, Room 9	Click for session
	Session 2 (11:10-12:50)	New voices in Population Geography migration and mobilities research	Boyana Buyuklieva (University College London) Nissa Finney (University of St Andrews)	Sherfield/SALC Building, Room 9	Click for session
	Session 4 (16:50-18:30)	Young people's politics in diverse societies: creating hopeful geographies?	Elizabeth Mavroudi (Loughborough University) Louise Holt (Loughborough University)	Sir Alexander Fleming Building, Room 119	Click for session
	Evening (18:45-20:00)	Population Geography Research Group (PopGRG) AGM and Social Gathering		RGS-IBG Tea Room (AGM) and Eastside Bar, Princes Gardens, SW7 2AZ (Social)
Thursday 29th August	Session 1 (9:00-10:40)	Everyday Subjectivities of Privileged Migrants (1): Intersections of gender and race	Sophie Cranston (Loughborough University) Karine Duplan (University of Geneva, Switzerland)	Skempton Building, Lecture Theatre 201	Click for session
	Session 2 (11:10-12:50)	Everyday Subjectivities of Privileged Migrants (2): Lifestyle and biographical approaches			Click for session
	Session 3 (14:40-16:20)	Prospects in Migration Theory: What is next?	Ibrahim Sirkeci (Regent's University London) Jeffrey H. Cohen (Ohio State University, USA)	Skempton Building, Lecture Theatre 207	Click for session
	Session 4 (16:50-18:30)	Troubling gender in Population geography: Panel Discussion	Kate Botterill (University of Glasgow) Nissa Finney (University of St Andrews)	Skempton Building, Lecture Theatre 207	Click for session
Friday 30th August	Session 2 (11:10-12:50)	Exploring the interplay between government, politics and (im)mobility in the Global South	Hebe Nicholson (University of St Andrews) Daniel Robins (University of St Andrews)	Sherfield/SALC Building, Room 9	Click for session
	Session 2 (11:10-12:50)	Hopeful meanings of segregation (1): Hopeful perspectives on school, work and residential segregation			Click for session
	Session 3 (14:40-16:20)	Hopeful meanings of segregation (2): hopeful definitions and meanings of ethnic residential segregation/diversity	Nissa Finney (University of St Andrews) Albert Sabater (University of St Andrews) Gemma Catney (Queens University Belfast)	Sherfield/SALC Building, Room 10	Click for session
	Session 4 (16:50-18:30)	Hopeful meanings of segregation (3): lifecourse transitions and intersections producing hopeful segregation			Click for session